	Theme Unit: Science Forces Lesson Objective: To understand how force can change the distances which objects move. Materials needed: Paper, pencil, laptop or tablet to research, marble or ball or bat/ball Lesson outline: Please watch the link below which runs through step-by-step tasks for the lesson today on forces. https://www.youtube.com/e mbed/zUO2nf_rvGA Tasks for the lesson include: 1. Label the forces pictures 2. Explore the web link https://www.dkfindout.com/ us/science/forces-and- motion/what-is-force/ and answer True/False Q's 3. Use the link https://www.inquisitive.com /guided-research/1422- balanced-forces to investigate 'balanced forces' and record some examples 4. Do an investigation on forces— Use a marble, ball, or bat/ball and observe how the strength of force affects the distance an object moves.	Fitness: Mr Humphrey Fitness challenge https://www.youtube.com/ watch?v=I0rrYoOhsR0 (Please find template attached as Fitness - Tuesday on the website) Dance: 1. Create a dance that incorporates an object. What type of object will you use? It might be a ball or a long ribbon or pillow. Experiment types of ways of moving the object and creating dance moves. Remember to use what we have learnt so far about timing, levels, beats, sounds, rhythm. 2. Create a simple routine (8-16 counts) using the object as part of your dance moves. You can count out loud and add in double beats and pauses if you like. 3. Video yourself completing your dance and upload to google classroom if that is	 Bounce Back: Believe in Yourself Please listen to the story below 'Edward the Emu' and then answer the questions on a google doc or in your workbook. . https://www.youtube.com/e mbed/E96A0cEYtko What made Edward think he wasn't good enough as he was? Was he right? Why is it silly and not helpful to want to be someone else and to think that others are better than you are? Activity: Using the Edward the Emu book review template attached Complete a book review of Edward the Emu and explain how Edward 'had a go', 'took a risk' and 'believed in himself' within the book summary section of the template. Remember: You need to accept and believe that who you are is okay, even though we are all different in many ways. Optional Extra/Extension Internet Safety with Mrs 	 Music: Music Lesson Focus: Percussion, keeping the beat and following rhythm. Today we are going to use a cup and our hands as percussion instruments. Do your best to follow the steps in the video to keep the beat and rhythm. 1. Get a PLASTIC cup and sit at a hard surface - put something down to protect your table if needed like a magazine. You are going to be making some noise so make sure you're not going to disturb anyone. 2. Access the link, https://drive.google.com /file/d/1DpTnK0Fy JHvO pm6HTOpuHF0-uB- ZE74/view?usp=sharing Follow the directions of the pictures on the beat. You can pause it as you need. 3. Practice Makes Progress! Keep watching to get the beat and rhythm right. Optional: 4. Post a video onto the google classroom of you 	PDHPE: throwing and catching. Use the task cards or video for your sport session. (These sessions were completed in week 2 last term. Have your skills improved over the last 12 weeks?)
